Occupational Therapist – The Hello Clinic

Description

We are a progressive, client-focused clinic providing high-quality SLP and OT services to the greater Portland community and online therapy services to patients throughout the United States. Due to our experience with online therapy, we have been able to transition seamlessly between in-person and remote services during the time of COVID. This position has the opportunity to be hybrid with time seeing clients in the office and teletherapy from your home office. Full-time and part-time options are available.

We moved into a newly renovated office space in the heart of Beaverton's beautiful Griffith Park area last summer. A new office awaits the candidate who fills this position!

The Hello Clinic is part of The Hello Foundation community. We pride ourselves on providing superior therapy and nurturing the growth of our staff. We engage the larger community and shape the standards for best practices including working with our university partners to provide clinical training opportunities for students. Applicants for this position should be interested in supervision and training graduate student clinicians.

We are

- Fierce advocates for kids.
- Savvy business visionaries.
- Passionate about our culture.
