Speech-Language Pathologist – The Hello Clinic

Description

We are a progressive, client-focused clinic providing high-quality SLP and OT services to the greater Portland community and online therapy services to patients throughout the United States. Due to our experience with online therapy, we have been able to seamlessly transition our local clients between in-person and remote services during the time of COVID. We will continue to provide both teletherapy and resume in-person therapy as health guidance allows. All members of our clinic team are currently vaccinated.

We have built our company on our core values: Practice Work/Life Balance, Provide High-Quality Service, Put Kids First, and Give. We pride ourselves on providing superior therapy and nurturing the growth of our staff. We engage the larger community and shape the standards for best practices.

We are . . .

- Fierce advocates for kids
- Savvy business visionaries
- Passionate about our culture
- Intentional about our growth

- Monitoring and evaluating client progress
- Completion of daily notes, progress reports, and evaluation reports in a timely manner.
- Collaborating and consulting with staff, parents, and other services providers.
- Working with volunteers and/or students

Skills

You are . . .

- flexible.
- open to new ideas and change.
- a problem solver.
- an independent thinker.
- committed to the advancement of your own clinical skills.
- unflappable when under pressure and time constraints.
