

The Hello Foundation is a progressive, fun-loving, client-focused company that provides high quality service to families and individuals. Families and individuals seek out The Hello Foundation for online speech therapy for convenient and effective assistance.

Our Hello Online clinicians have a few things in common: they're dedicated to kids, they're flexible, they're always learning, and they're interested in how technology can help us better communicate with team members for the benefit of clients.

Hello Online Clinician Qualities:

- You are flexible & an independent thinker
- You are a problem solver
- You are unflappable when under pressure & time constraints
- You have a positive & upbeat clinical approach
- You have excellent oral & written interpersonal and communication skills
- You strive to collaborate with many

JOB OPENING AVAILABLE:

Part-time, On-call Hello Online SLP - Hello Online Job Descriptions

You will perform the duties of a clinic-based SLP utilizing our Hello Online Platform/Application to work with clients via telepractice.

Responsibilities Include, but are not limited to:

- Employing best practices in individual and group treatment
- Monitoring and evaluating student progress
- Tracking data for progress reports and treatment planning
- Collaborating and consulting with parents and other team members

On-call Hello Online Job Expectations:

- Hours will fluctuate each month based on client demand
- SLP will work from their home office
- SLP will work nontraditional business hours
- SLP will be licensed or in process in Oregon, Washington, & California

Hello Online On-call Compensation:

- We pay $32-$35/hour [45 min session with 15 min for notes/prep]
- We pay 3% to a company 401K
- You set your own schedule & decide how much you will work

 With great risks come great rewards.
Think you're up for the challenge? Send resume and cover letter to:

Sharon Soliday, CEO & Advocate for Kids
Sharon.soliday@thehellofoundation.com

